Hello, my name is Simon Hatton and this is my first post to the site. I think I may have just found my new bike. The only downside is I cant see it now so I need some advice from you guys. It's a Iver JG city utility cycle with endoignio and 12v shock absorbers. Can you guys please advise on cost of this on ebay? or where I would get parts from. Thanks all

Thanks all It's in good condition as far as I can see. I've spent a few quid looking at this,the rest of the engine,it's frame and it's components, but it didn't buy me a model so it's definitely worth
