The i-v-i-IV progression is typically used in jazz performance. Bb Funk The ii V7 I Progression. It was hoped that the new.Lingayat Gold Mask (from Amritsar, PAKISTAN) Amritsar is a pilgrimage center of all the Indian religions. It is the town where Guru Gobind Singh Ji delivered his last sermon. This gold mask is inscribed with inscriptions of Gurus Nanak and Guru Gobind Singh Ji. It is part of a small collection of Namdhar and Valadi jewelry works that are similar in style to the Maharashtrian jewelry of the same period. This mask has been sold at auction 3 times since its acquisition. It is available for viewing by appointment only and all inquiries are handled with great discretion. This piece is identical to the mask pictured above except for the inscription and cannot be included with the listing. These astounding pieces are the only religious Namdhar jewelry in existence, and they offer many intriguing bits of information about the spiritual lives and religious sensibilities of the people who created them. This mask is undoubtedly the most elegant piece. Nanak's lettering is done in gold leaf and has the unusual refinement of soft gold leaf applied to the relief on the mask. There are no other inscriptions. The Guru's is much more like the one on the mask above, but the Guru's is engraved in filigree, a style this mask clearly does not employ. The same kind of filigree surrounds Nanak's signature on the piece. Nanak's inscription as well as the Guru's signature have the red oxide used in paints at that time, indicating that they were done by hand. Nanak's signature is accompanied by the Guru's name, the symbol for his learning, the name of Allah, and a hymn. Danish
